Sir,

You are kindly aware that we had our last meeting with you on 11th Nov, 2022 when a wide gamut of issues of the retired officers were covered during the discussions. It is over 5 months since our last meeting and you will appreciate that another meeting with your kind self is overdue considering the deteriorating plight of the retired officers on the one hand and the pending issues hanging fire for years on the other.

In light of the above, we humbly seek your benevolent attention to the retired officers and request you to indicate your convenient date at the earliest (preferably before 10th May, 2023) for meeting the office bearers of IROWA.

For the sake of your convenience, the issues we propose to discuss in the above meeting are enumerated below.

- PRMS - Date on which circular is to be issued by CO on revision of Hospitalization limits, Domiciliary expenses limit, Miscellaneous expenses for retired officers effective from the current block year (including payment of the expenses on above account for the past which could not be made due to non-revision of limits in 2016 and 2020, wherever pending)
- Making space available in IOC premises for holding monthly meeting of retired officers
- Restoration/Providing SABF benefits, as envisaged in the SABF scheme introduced w.e.f. 01/11/1987
- Payment of ex-gratia in full to all the retired officers, as applicable to different grades, including to those receiving partial ex-gratia
- Providing Holiday Home and Guest House to retired officers at the rate as applicable prior to the present revised rate
- Simplification/Rationalization of e-sambandh portal specially in regard to submission of medical reimbursement claims, booking of travel tickets, booking of Guest House/Holiday Home for ease of usage by the retired officers

We shall be highly obliged for advising us the nearest convenient date for the meeting of IROWA with esteemed Director (HR) and his team.

With Kind Regards

(A K Rauniar) 2/5/23
Vice President, IROWA
